Subject: Favor for the PFAS Site

Hi Janet,

Do you have time to do me a favor? Kim asked me to find someone to test the PFAS Sharepoint site as we are trying to verify that the permissions are set-up properly. Can you access the site and see if you can open the Wolverine folder? Currently, only Kim and I should be able to see the documents in the folder. Please let me know if you can see them. After we get this verified, I think she is going to start adding other people that should have access

Thank you, Jenny
